

“Go Green Arabia Mountain HS Football Team Goes Pink!”

DeKalb County Schools is renowned in the state of Georgia for its football accomplishments. The school system boasts 11 state titles and repeatedly place out state title contenders and Top 10 ranked football programs from year to year. The Arabia Mountain High School football team, under the leadership of Head Football Coach Christopher Beal, has been successfully running for nearly three years now.

Arabia Mountain High School is one of the first public schools in the state of Georgia with a national certification for environmental construction and perhaps the only one with an environmentally themed curriculum. A state-of-the-art, $48-million facility boasting some of the newest and most challenging high school magnet programs open to students countywide. The campus sits near the Arabia Mountain national heritage area, which comprises thousands of acres of protected green space.

Arabia Mountain High School serves as DeKalb County’s “Going Green” environmentally friendly high school. Arabia Mountain High is the first public school with LEED Silver Certification in the state of Georgia. LEED stands for Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design and is monitored by the United States Green Building Council. The school’s mission is to engage students in active learning and service through collaborative instruction using the school and community as context for developing understanding of human and environmental interactions while preparing students for involved citizenship in a changing world.

The Arabia Mountain Rams is not only committed on the field and in the classroom, they are committed to serving their community. The “Go Green” Football Team has decided support the Susan G. Komen foundation and go Passionately Pink for the Cure of breast cancer! The Arabia Mountain Rams will go Passionately Pink by wearing pink attire such as wristbands and shoelaces with their football uniform. The team will debut their pink on September 30th located at Adams Stadium in the Arabia Mountain vs. Woodward Academy football game. The team will also wear pink at all games for the month of October.

The Rams encourage anyone to make a donation by going online to www.passionatelypink.org and click on “Find a Team.” The team name is “ArabiaFootball” and the team ID number is 10749369. When you donate online, you’ll receive an electronic receipt and be able to see how your donation is contributing to the Arabia team fundraising goal of $1,000.00 to Susan G. Komen for the Cure. By making a donation, together, we can help fund critical breast cancer research, as well as local education, screening and treatment programs that impact people in our community.

Susan G. Komen for the Cure, the global leader of the global breast cancer movement, is the world’s largest grassroots network of breast cancer survivors and activists working together to save lives, empower people, ensure quality care for all and energize science to find the cures.
